In Blueberry Muffin Murder, Hannah is busy preparing for the annual Lake Eden Blueberry Festival when her neighbor, Mrs. Springer, is found dead in her kitchen. The police quickly rule her death as an accident, but Hannah isn't convinced. She knows that Mrs. Springer was a careful woman, and she wouldn't have left her stove on accidentally.

Determined to find out the truth, Hannah begins her own investigation. She soon discovers that Mrs. Springer was involved in a bitter feud with her neighbor, Mr. Jenkins. Could Jenkins have killed Mrs. Springer in a fit of rage? Or is there something more sinister going on?

As Hannah digs deeper into the case, she uncovers a web of secrets and lies. She learns that Mrs. Springer was not the only person who had a motive for murder. In fact, it seems like everyone in Lake Eden had something to hide.

With the help of her friends and family, Hannah sets out to find the killer. She uses her baking skills to gather clues and her sharp wit to solve the puzzle. Along the way, she learns some valuable lessons about friendship, love, and the importance of following her dreams.

Characters

Hannah Swensen: A baker and amateur sleuth who is determined to find out the truth about Mrs. Springer's death.

Mike Kingston: A police officer who is initially skeptical of Hannah's investigation, but eventually comes to appreciate her skills.

Delores Swensen: Hannah's mother, who is a constant source of support and encouragement.

Norman Rhodes: Hannah's love interest, who is a doctor at the local hospital.

Moishe Cohen: Hannah's best friend, who is a rabbi and the owner of the local bookstore.

Setting

Blueberry Muffin Murder is set in the small town of Lake Eden, Minnesota. The town is home to a close-knit community of people, who are all eager to help Hannah solve the mystery of Mrs. Springer's death.

Themes
