Arthur Sullivan's "Let Me Dream Again" is a beautiful and haunting ballad that has been performed by countless singers over the years. The song was originally written for the 1891 musical comedy "The Gondoliers," and it quickly became one of Sullivan's most popular songs. The lyrics, by W.S. Gilbert, tell the story of a man who has lost his love and longs to dream of her again.

This sheet music edition of "Let Me Dream Again" is arranged for voice and piano. The arrangement is simple and straightforward, making it easy to learn and perform. The vocal line is written in the key of C major, and the piano accompaniment provides a gentle and supportive harmonic background.

This sheet music is perfect for singers of all levels. It is a great choice for students who are learning to sing classical music, as well as for experienced singers who are looking for a beautiful and expressive song to add to their repertoire.
